

 SAFE 2010	Organised by	Supported by
	 Confederation of Indian Industry

“Safe City - Securing Your World”

An International Conference on Homeland Security

28 – 30 July 2010; NSIC Exhibition Centre, Okhla Industrial Centre New Delhi

Inaugural Session

Theme Session – Securing Your World: Challenges

- India's Internal Security Challenges - Dimensions and Constituents
- Citizen – Safety & Security Landscape
- Problems with Naxalism / Doing business under Naxal influenced areas.
- Need for National Security Strategy – Global Experiences

Infrastructure Security

- Critical Infrastructure Security
- Special session on Security for Commonwealth Games

Role of Central / State Police Organisation in Internal Security Management

- Interstate Cooperation
- Centre – State Coordination
- Border Management
- Police Reforms

Integrating Technologies to meet the Challenges

- Integration of Surveillance Systems (Land/Air/Maritime)
- Communication and Information Technology & Cyber Security
- Training & Simulation requirements
- Aids to Investigation

User Needs and Concerns

- Modern Gear For Police Force (General Stores Uniform Items, CBRNE Equipment and Specialist Clothing)
- High Mobility and Specialized Vehicles For Security Forces

Role of Public Private Partnership - The Way Ahead

- PPP Models – Existing Case Studies
- Capabilities of Companies.
- Opportunity in Homeland Security Market.
- Role of Insurance market under Terrorism